Mission Planning

FREE Training: 19-20OCT2021 0800-1700

Where: Building 104, Camp Murray, WA

This course applies military mission planning techniques to law enforcement operations. This course will help students become organized decision managers and mission leaders. The course introduces general frameworks to help students plan any mission and lead their organizations. The course goals are to improve time and information management and risk mitigation in mission planning to support the foundational goal of officer safety. This course is designed to be highly experiential and hands-on. Lead instructor is Special Forces soldier with 6 combat deployments.

Day 1: Plan a Time-Constrained Mission

- Students work in teams to use Tactical Leading Procedures (TLPs) to develop a plan for a real-world time-constrained mission
- The plan will be put into a 1-slide Concept-of-the-Operation (CONOP) format
- Students will brief their plan to the instructors and rest of class

Day 2: Plan a High-Risk Mission

- Students will use Tactical Decision Making Process (TDMP) to plan for a real-world high-risk mission
- Plan will be written in the more elaborate Operation Orders format
- Students will brief plan to instructors and class
